Health condition

Seminar is not a substitute for any medical or psychotherapeutic care. If the participant is currently undergoing any kind of treatment (especially psychiatric or psychological), they undertake to inform the instructor about this fact and the nature of difficulties before starting the seminar. The participant undertakes to inform the lecturer about possible health complications (post-traumatic conditions, long-term illnesses, epilepsy, asthma, pregnancy, etc.). The participant confirms that they do not use psychopharmacology and have no serious infectious disease or sexually transmitted disease.

Responsibility

Participation in the seminar is voluntary. The participant holds the full responsibility for themselves and for everything they do throughout the entire program. The lecturer's instructions are only suggestions by which the participant is guided at their discretion. The participant notes that they may be subjected to physical, psychological or emotional stress during the seminar.

At the retreat, we will detoxify the body using a special diet. The diet will be gluten-free, vegan and sugar-free. During the seminar we will also not drink coffee, black tea, alcohol and we will not smoke.

If you will not be able to come, please contact us and make space for any other people.

Thank you, we look forward to seeing you
